

Phenotype to Environment Graphic Organizer (Activity 1)

Copy and paste the table below so there are enough spaces to record each groups' presentation results. For example, this page would accommodate three presentations. If you have nine presentations, make three copies of this page.

Presenters' Names:
Scientific Name:
Common Name(s):
How is it used in Native American communities?
Herb, bush, or tree?
How does it reproduce?
Distribution and habitat preference?
What type of stresses might this plant experience?

Presenters' Names:
Scientific Name:
Common Name(s):
How is it used in Native American communities?
Herb, bush, or tree?
How does it reproduce?
Distribution and habitat preference?
What type of stresses might this plant experience?

Presenters' Names:
Scientific Name:
Common Name(s):
How is it used in Native American communities?
Herb, bush, or tree?
How does it reproduce?
Distribution and habitat preference?
What type of stresses might this plant experience?	