

Senses Activities Recording Sheet

Answer the following questions after completing each activity. Be sure to check which activity you have completed and answer the corresponding questions.

Touch of Genius

1. What was the most challenging part of this activity?
2. Describe how your sense of touch might adapt if you were to experience an entire week without the senses of sight, hearing and taste.

Activity: I See the Light

1. Describe your ability (or lack of ability) to perceive light through the blindfold.
2. What can be learned from the experience about the human ability to see?
3. Describe an animal who has a limited capacity to use sight. What other special abilities does this animal possess to compensate for their limited sight?

Activity: Tasty Treats

1. Describe how the lack of sight effected your ability to determine the taste of an object.
2. Why is sight an important sense when determining what is appropriate to eat?

Activity: Bells and Whistles

1. Describe the most challenging part of navigating by sound.
2. Approximately 600,000 people in the United State are deaf, name at least 3 things that have been designed to help those who are hard of hearing.

Activity: Fee-fi-fo-fum, I smell...

1. Describe the most challenging part of this process.
2. List 3 benefits and 3 drawbacks of losing the ability to smell.