

- ND EPSCoR is continuing the Rural Student Teaching Experience (RSTE) program in Spring 2023.
- The RSTE is a funded student teaching experience that meets all of the requirements of ND Teacher Education programs.
- Two applicants will be awarded this opportunity for Spring 2023 (to be notified on or around October 7, 2022).

Rural Student Teaching Experience

Want more information?

Contact Dr. Ryan Summers by email at ryan.summers@UND.edu for details or to ask questions.

Perks & Benefits

- RSTE participants will each receive a stipend of up to $10,000 for Spring 2023.
- Participants will receive extra mentorship by PROSPER faculty during the 1-semester program.

- Interested? Submit your application electronically by noon on September 23rd, 2022.
- Fill out the online application. You can describe your interest in teaching in a rural setting and your qualifications for teaching math or science in Grades 6 through 12.
- For more information, see the Request for Applications.

Eligibility & Application Details

This effort is supported by the National Science Foundation under NSF EPSCoR Track-1 Cooperative Agreement OIA #1946202.

